THE KEY FINDINGS FROM THE NON-FATAL DROWNING INCIDENTS IN OUR STUDY of children included in the study were 0-4 years old

34% of children 0-16 years old were from a culturally and linguistically diverse background

36%
of children 0-16 years old experienced a non-fatal drowning in swimming pools, followed by 23% in baths

Children who were unsupervised accounted for the highest number of drowning incidents, the majority of these occurring in swimming pools of children 0-4 years old were unsupervised at the time of the incident of children who needed CPR were unsupervised at the time they were in the water of incidents in private swimming pools occurred because the pool gate was propped open of children were found by a family member of children had water familiarisation or swimming lessons prior to the drowning incident

33%